IN THE SUSQUEHANNA VALLEY, LAND OF RIPPLING STREAMS AND RILLS,
IS A BUSY LITTLE CITY NESTLING MIDST THE BLUE RIDGE HILLS.
AND 'TIS THERE OUR ALMA MATER, MAY HER PRAISES NEVER DIE, LIFTS HER STATELY TOW'R TOWARD HEAVEN, DEAR BELOVED OLD SAYRE HIGH.
FOR WE'RE ALL STAUNCH AND LOYAL AND WE'RE EACH THE OTHER'S FRIEND,
WE WILL STICK BY OUR COLORS UNTIL THIS LIFE SHALL END;
SO WHILE WE'RE TOGETHER LET US GIVE A RINGING CHEER,
FOR THE PRAISE OF ALMA MATER, FOR OUR SAYRE HIGH SCHOOL SO DEAR.

IN MEMORIAM

Morris Nelson Johnson
May 12, 1938—May 23, 1956

"There is a tender thought of you
Deep down within the heart,
That forms of every lovely day
The brightest, dearest part.
Though Fate our paths may separate
And hide your smile from view,
'Tis powerless to take from us
The memory of you."

Michael Gregory Kenish
February 25, 1939—May 23, 1956

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Administering the numerous affairs of the local schools are three elected groups—the directors of the Sayre Area Joint High School, the board members of the Sayre Area Schools, and the representatives of the Sayre Borough School District. The Executive Committee is composed of representatives from each group.

In all, there are thirteen members from the Sayre Area Joint High School Board—seven from Sayre, and two each from South Waverly Borough, Athens Township, and Litchfield Township.

Sayre schools are fortunate in having as members of the board men who give freely of their time and talent, so that the local schools may continue to maintain their high standards.

After having completed successfully ten years of their education, the Juniors this year entered Sayre High School with the knowledge of added responsibilities.

Much emphasis was placed on the selection of a class ring which would best represent the class. With the aid of the class advisers, the ring committee chose a number of rings to be shown to the students to vote upon and finally selected their ring.

The most important social event of the year was the annual Junior Prom. Amidst the lights and beautiful decorations, the Juniors made the evening quite a success and a memorable occasion.

A sizable treasury was amassed by their efforts in many fund-raising projects, such as informal dances and proceeds from concession stands at football games.

For the Juniors this was also an all-important year education-wise, for this was the year of the dreaded College Boards and hoping you've made the Honor Society.

After much practice and determination, opening night of the annual Junior Play came off as scheduled and was quite a success.

The following officers—Bart Mandarano, President; William Scanlin, Vice-President; Sandra Bond, Secretary; and Veronica Lynch, Treasurer—were chosen to carry on the responsibilities of the leadership of the class. Along with the class advisers, Miss Ruth Tozer and Mr. Max Cooley, they led the Junior Class in a highly successful and momentous year of activity.

ACTIVITIES

THE MAY FESTIVAL

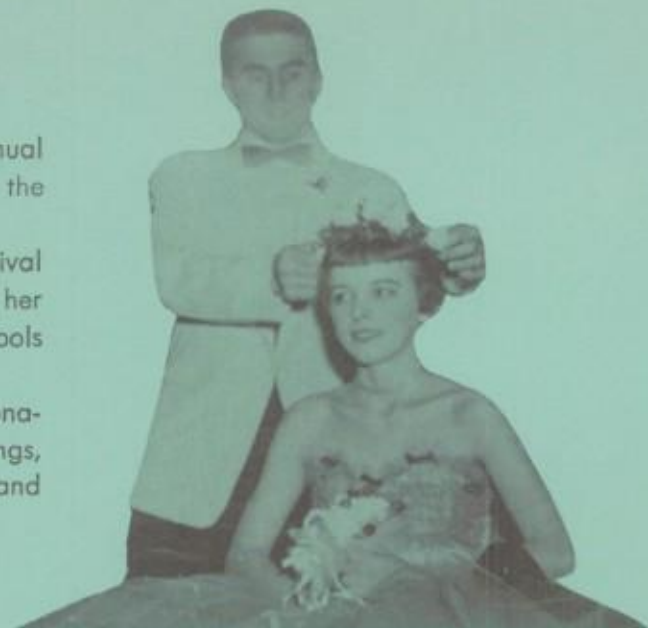

One of the most spectacular events of the school is the annual May Festival in which hundreds of students from both the elementary school and the high school participate.

Staged in the Lockhart Street Stadium, the 1956 festival began with the entrance of the queen, Marian Carroll, and her court of several flower girls representing the elementary schools and attendants representing the high school.

The traditional winding of the May pole followed the coronation of the queen, after which an excellent program of songs, dances, and special numbers was presented before a large and enthusiastic audience.

TRACK

In the lead—Red Vail, Leland Hakes, Dick Vail.

To inaugurate the 1956 track season, the Redskins entertained the Bulldogs of Athens on April 25. Although Sayre took first place in six events, they went down in defeat by a score of $74\frac{2}{3}$ - $43\frac{1}{3}$.

On May 3, Sayre again played host, entertaining eight area teams in a night invitational meet. Athens came out on top with $63\frac{1}{4}$ points, Owego was second with $51\frac{1}{2}$, and Sayre finished third, taking five first places and compiling $39\frac{1}{4}$ points.

The Bradford County Meet at Athens on the afternoon of May 6, again showed the Redskins bowing to Athens, who had 95 points. Sayre placed second, scoring 52 points, and Troy and Towanda followed in that order.

Returning home on May 9, Sayre went down in defeat to a mighty junior varsity team from Williamsport, 70-48.

In the valley meet at Sayre on May 11, Athens once again triumphed. The Bulldogs scored $62\frac{1}{8}$ points to Sayre's 52 and $21\frac{5}{8}$ for Waverly. Finishing first six times, the Redskins made one of their better showings of the spring.

The last track meet of the year was the District IV encounter held at Athens. Athens, scoring 79 points, again was the victor. Sayre was second with 67 points. Towanda and Troy brought up the rear.

In the state meet held at Penn State on May 26, Bob Peet and Willard Baker both proved a credit to the school, by placing in their respective events. Peet was fourth in the 880, while Baker finished fifth in the 180-yard low hurdles.

JUNIOR PLAY

The juniors, directed by Miss Geraldine Stocum presented their play "The People Versus Maxine Lowe" on April 14, 1956.

Maxine Lowe was accused of the murder of her husband Daniel Lowe. A young lawyer defended Mrs. Lowe while a more experienced lawyer prosecuted her for the state. The scene was a court room where the trial was taking place. The mystery became more absorbing as a surprise witness arrived to augment the already enthralling atmosphere. A touching story of Maxine Lowe's plight unfolded to a very receptive audience.

One feature of this play different from others presented at Sayre was the fact that the curtains were never drawn and the witnesses came down the aisles before and after each act to take their places in the audience. From there they were called to the stand by the judge.

JUNIOR PROM

In the spring of '55 the present seniors had their first taste of a formal dance and the work that goes with it.

The gym was transformed into a purple, orchid, and white dreamland to set the scene for "Orchids in the Moonlight." To carry out the theme, tiny orchids decorated the candlesticks on the tables and the rare flowers floated in a small pool surrounded by a rock garden in the centerpiece.

To highlight the gala affair, Joyce Tuttle, sitting on the large silver moon amidst the stars, was crowned queen of the prom by Class President Ray Nobles.

Sandroni's Orchestra provided music for one of senior high's primary social events of the year.

BASEBALL

Nittinger in a big wind-up.

The Sayre Redskins opened their 1956 baseball season with a stimulating victory over Troy on April 19th, 5-0. Jack Nittinger worked the whole game for Sayre and seemed to be invincible to the Troy batsmen as he gave up only 5 hits and struck out 11.

Continuing on the warpath, the Redskins won their second game in as many starts by subduing the Black Knights at Towanda, 6-5. The game, although not as close as the score indicates, was marked by many sparkling fielding plays by the Sayre nine. Jack Nittinger again went the route, limiting Towanda to six hits.

Sayre's lead of the RTL was short-lived as they were walloped by Wyalusing on May 3rd, 19-0, a score which surprised almost everyone, including the Redskins. Wyalusing's pitcher threw two-hit ball. Sayre's workhorse, Nittinger, started for the Redskins but was a victim of poor support and had to be relieved by Carl Brown, who, after going an inning and a half, needed help from Don Strayves.

In the fourth game of the 1956 campaign, the Redskins went down in defeat to Athens by the phenomenal score of 22 to 4. Although the Sayre team collected 11 hits, they had trouble on the mound. Don Strayves, who started the ball game, and relievers Brown and Nittinger could not stop the Bulldog's bats, and their cause was not helped by the loose support of their teammates.

The Sayre nine got back on the winning path when they downed Canton, 12-11, in extra innings on the Canton diamond. Sayre threw Nittinger and Snyder at the Canton batters, but they were hurt by the sloppy fielding of their teammates.

The Waverly Wolverines invaded Sayre on May 9th for a non-RTL tilt in which they clubbed the Redskins, behind George Boyle's one-hit pitching, 16-1. Brown was Sayre's starting and losing pitcher.

In the return game with Troy, Sayre again defeated the Trojans, in an extra inning affair, 4 to 3. Nittinger again was the winning pitcher for the home team, assisted by John Carroll who started.

Scoring seven runs in the first inning, Towanda downed Sayre on their home field, 16 to 5 on May 14th. The loss was charged to Farrell, who was relieved by Nittinger in the first inning.

Chacona connects for a long hit.

In the best-played game of the season, the Red and Blue was again defeated by arch-rival Athens, 3 to 0. Both teams played brilliantly in the field, but Athens was able to scratch across three runs on their seven hits, while Sayre could not touch their six hits enough to score.

The second Wyalusing encounter was another nightmare, as the Redskins went down in defeat 8 to 5. Jack Nittinger again went the route for Sayre, but he was touched for ten hits from Wyalusing bats.

Sayre dropped Canton 14 to 8 behind left-hander Austin Snyder to finish the RTL baseball campaign on May 22nd. The Redskins collected 17 hits, the greatest number of the season in subduing the Warriors.

In the final game of the 1956 season, Sayre traveled to Waverly only to be defeated by the Wolverines on the night of May 23rd by the score of 5 to 2.

CAREER DAY

A most important feature of the guidance program at Sayre High is Career Day. More than ever before high school students are beginning to realize that it is never too soon to prepare for their life's work. Career Day, now in its seventh year and under the direction of Mr. Al Mortimer, gives high school students the opportunity to learn and discuss vocational occupations with representatives from various fields. Each student attends four conferences of his choice which concern his particular fields of interest.

The afternoon program features a general assembly with a special speaker from the educational field who addresses the student body from ninth to twelfth grades on a topic concerning the Career Day theme. After the assembly, representatives of various schools and colleges are available in the gymnasium for interviews to acquaint the students with their respective colleges.

CONVENTIONS

In the 1956 election year, Sayre High School got in full swing with the nation. Early in November Republican and Democratic representatives were chosen from each homeroom to plan their campaign strategy.

Following the national idea, delegates were elected from each homeroom to the conventions which were held complete with nominating speeches, parades and music. The Democrats nominated Leon Park for the Presidency and Louis Quatrini as Vice-President; the Republican standard bearers were Sam Williamson for President and George Bryan as his running mate.

Soon posters appeared in the halls urging the students to vote for their party.

All pupils then registered so that they would be eligible to vote.

When election day arrived, the count of the votes was anxiously awaited. Finally Mr. Kast announced the nominees of the Republican Party had won the election.

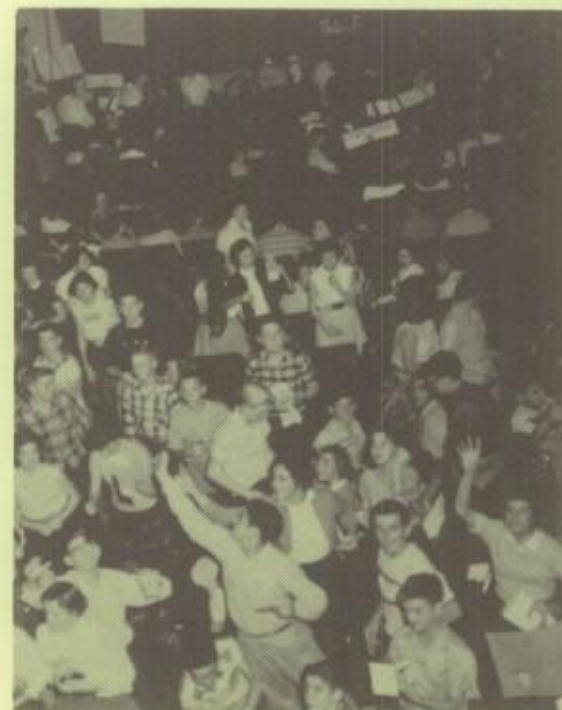

A victory parade resulted from this announcement. Activities of this nature serve to familiarize the students with political customs and voting procedures.

FOOTBALL

Opening the 1956 football campaign, the Redskins traveled to Canton on September 8 only to be faced by a stubborn Warrior team and held to a 13-13 tie. Roger White and Leland Hakes handled the touchdown scoring for Sayre, while Bud Brown kicked the all-important extra point.

Led by White's three touchdowns and one each by Ken Hildebrandt and Ray Nobles, the Sayre eleven trounced Wyalusing in the first home game by a gigantic 32-0 score on September 14.

Scranton Central proved to be too big for the small Sayre team as the Redskins battled the team from the big city to a 7-7 tie for three quarters. But in the important final frame Scranton pulled away and won the ball game 26-7.

In the "big game" at Athens on September 29, the Redskins again went down in defeat to a much larger line by a score of 15-7. Roger White's 85-yard kickoff return for a touchdown proved to be the Sayre fans' only consolation.

Returning home on October 5, the Red and Blue avenged the Athens loss by trouncing Troy 21-0. Harold Brown, White and Nobles handled the scoring department for Sayre.

In the longest journey of the season, Sayre traveled to Forty Fort only to be upset by a strong eleven 20-7. Nobles scored the only touchdown on a pass from White.

At home on October 19, Hildebrandt, Brown, Hakes, and White each tallied a touchdown as the Redskins defeated arch-rival Waverly in the traditional game, 34-6.

In the last home game of the 1956 season Sayre was defeated by Towanda in a thriller, 13-6. Sayre's only score came on a pass from Tom Flynn to Dick Benjamin.

Sayre finished the season on November 2 by traveling to Corning only to be defeated by the Free Academians, 30-6. Roger White scored the only touchdown on an end run.

At the close of the season, Roger White and Jerry Pedini were named to the All-Valley team.

Wrestling made its debut as a varsity sport in December when the Redskins met Wyalusing at Wyalusing. Coach Carl Meyer's charges turned in a fine performance although losing the meet 39-27.

Returning to the valley, they fell before a strong Waverly team 53-5.

In their first match before home town fans the Redskins were able to win but one decision and were defeated by Towanda, 53-5.

Making their longest trip of the year, the Sayre matmen were unable to cope with the experience of the Wellsboro team and lost their fourth meet 29-17.

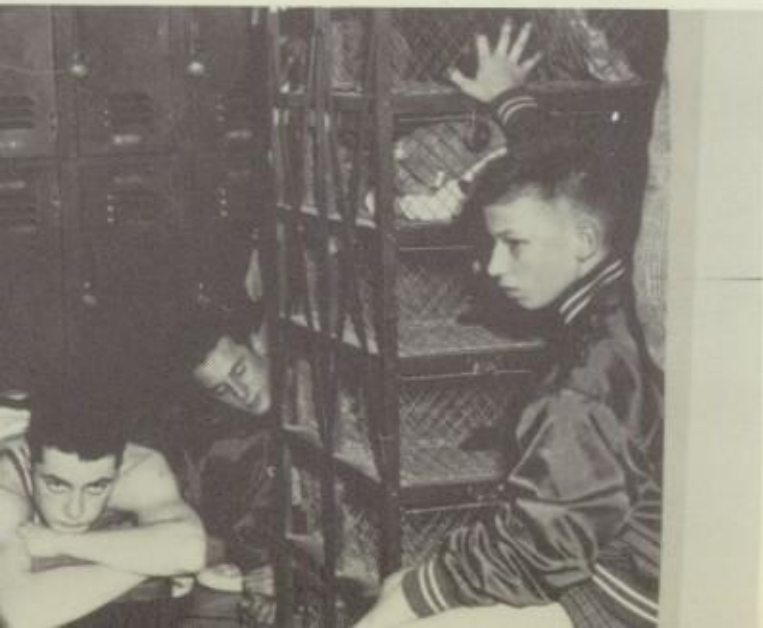

The Sayreites tasted victory for the first time in defeating Smithfield 34-18. In their second home match the Redskins bowed to Waverly again, 27-18.

Again playing host, the Sayre team entertained Canton in their seventh match. Losing all but two matches, the Sayre grapplers were overwhelmed 45-10.

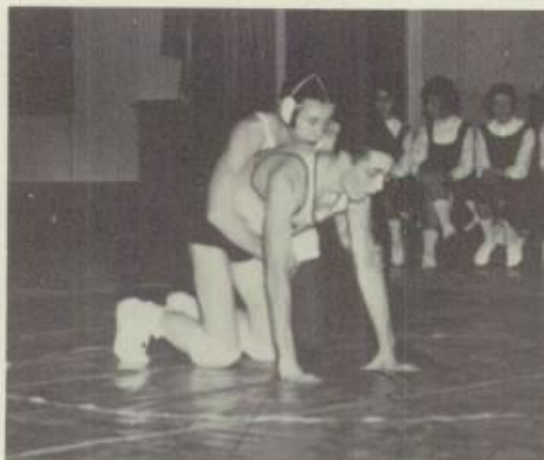

Traveling to the county seat, the Skins received a package of inhospitality in the form of a 45-5 defeat by Towanda.

Before a large crowd in the Sayre gym, the Redskin matmen avenged an earlier loss by defeating Wyalusing. Copping seven decisions, the home forces won their second dual meet by a score of 29-18. In the return match with Wellsboro, Sayre bowed 41-8.

Senior Players presented at final pep rally.

Coming out on the field or court with a vigorous "rah" "rah," the Sayre High Cheerleaders represent the fighting spirit of their school. Chosen annually, they are picked on the basis of ability, appearance, and personality.

This year the squad consisting of Seniors, Juniors, and Sophomores elected as co-captains Jeannette Lantz for the football season, and Janet Beahan for basketball.

Besides cheering their team on, the cheerleaders also work hard during the sports season packing confetti, presenting pep rallies, and working at the concession stand.

J. V. Cheerleaders are also chosen each year on the same basis as the varsity. This year eight were chosen from the eighth and ninth grades, the position of captain being rotated among the ninth graders. Cheering just for basketball games, these girls did much to bolster the spirit of the fighting J. V. team.

BAND

With its far reaching activities, the Band is one of the most enjoyable and rewarding of school organizations.

During the football season the Band appears at each game, polished and full of spirit, to entertain at half time and keep up the hopes of the boys on the field. A unique touch is added to the home games by the Drum and Bugle Corps, as they introduce the national anthem while marching onto the totally dark field, only their path lighted.

This year, participation in the Halloween parade, a long trip to Forty-Fort, the May Festival and the Memorial Day Parade widened the experiences of all the members.

At the close of the football season, the daily rehearsals and marching tones were exchanged for the Tuesday-Friday rehearsals and the mellow tones of the concert season. Much careful preparation was put into the concert held on March 1, a performance which demonstrated the Band's ability to present a program more classical and serious in nature.

In February four of the advanced members were selected to attend Northeastern District Band, held this year at Clark Summit.

Many fund-raising projects were carried out in the course of the year to earn the money necessary for the sweaters,

Directing its various activities this year were the Band officers: President, Richard Kays; Vice-president, Patricia Cas-selbury; and Secretary-Treasurer, Joyce Ashley.

The Band picnic, an annual feature for all the members, was held at the close of school and enjoyed by everyone.

To all who choose it and who give abundantly of their time and talent to make it a success, the Senior Band has been in the past and continues to be, a most rewarding and pleasurable experience.

JUNIOR BAND

The Junior Band is composed of a large number of musically-inclined junior high students, inspired and directed by Mr. Sickler.

The prime ambition of the members of this group is to become members of the Senior Band and take part in its numerous activities.

Junior Band is a club which is compulsory for all junior high students who receive instrumental instruction through the school. It offers its members the essential experience of playing as a group, thus preparing them for their goal, Senior Band.

The majorettes in their gold and white uniforms, led by Mary Helen Calveric, present a sparkling appearance as they assume their traditional position at the head of the band.

Ability to perform, appearance and personality mark the main qualities which a good majorette must have.

Their colorful halftime shows in conjunction with the band are highly enjoyed by the spectators at the football games. Participation in the "Redskin Revue" affords the opportunity to display their routines of precision and co-ordination.

These activities of the majorettes require ardent practice and preparation; however, the enjoyment and satisfaction of being a good majorette are the chief rewards.

The Senior High Choral Club is a regularly scheduled class which meets twice a week. It is composed of 10th, 11th, and 12th grade boys and girls who like to sing.

Under the direction of Mr. Greenham, the group sings many different types—folk songs, spirituals, popular and novelty numbers, hit songs from Broadway musical comedy shows.

During the year the club presents many musical programs both at school and outside of school. They take part in the Christmas and Easter programs, the Redskin Revue, and the May Festival.

Some of the members also participate in the County and District Music Festivals.

New among the vocal groups is the Junior High Glee Club composed of junior high school boys.

There are also several other vocal groups such as the Girls' Sextet, the Boys' Quartet and the Junior High Chorus. These groups contribute much to the school music program.

SENIOR PLAY

On November 9th the Senior Class presented a 3-act comedy entitled "Brother Goose" under the direction of Mr. Mortimer, in his first year at Sayre.

This was the story of four orphaned children, left to rear themselves. Of course the responsibility was shouldered by Jeff, the older of the two boys.

Blueprints used for a football, a maid who quit her job, flowers placed in the right spot—all these were parts of the plot. But in spite of the humorous and sometimes embarrassing situations, Jeff managed to keep the family well intact.

NATIONAL THESPIAN SOCIETY

"Act well your part; there all the honor lies"—this is the motto of the National Thespian Society, the honorary dramatic group at Sayre.

This non-secret, non-social organization is devoted to the advancement of standards of excellence in dramatic arts.

Membership in the Thespians is obtained on the basis of the point system, each point representing ten hours of work. For the local Troupe 1151, sponsored by Mrs. Wildrick, thirteen points are necessary, earned by participation in plays, radio broadcasts and promoting interest in school dramatics. Only senior high school students are eligible.

With membership in the National Thespian Society goes a year's subscription to the "Dramatics" magazine.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Each year several students are selected from the junior class to be probationary members of the National Honor Society. These students must have an average of 90% or better, or be in the upper tenth of their class scholastically.

As seniors they become permanent members provided they have maintained their standing during their junior year.

Four other qualities which the students must have in order to be eligible are service, leadership, scholarship, and character.

During the second semester of the school year and under the sponsorship of Mrs. Flynn, a formal initiation is conducted by the senior society for the new juniors. This ceremony is traditionally followed by a tea for the members, their parents, and the faculty.

President of the Honor Society is Barry Noone; other officers are Vice-president, Sam Williamson; Corresponding Secretary, Ruth Palipkonich; Recording Secretary, Mary Zimmer.

Officers—Palipkonich, Williamson, Noone, Zimmer.

BASKETBALL

The opening game of the 1956-57 basketball campaign proved to be a nightmare for the Sayre Redskins as they went down in defeat to a small but fast Johnson City five, 80-61.

Northeast Bradford became Sayre's first victim at home by a score of 57-43.

The journey to Wellsboro was very successful for the Sayre five as they came home with a 77-67 win.

Traveling to Canton for the first Roosevelt Trail League encounter, Sayre tried hard but was defeated, 71-52.

Returning home, the Red and Blue took their revenge against Towanda to the tune of 79-58.

Wyalusing next invaded Sayre and was victorious 81-63.

The traditional rivalry was again renewed at Athens, and once more the game was a thriller, with Athens coming out in front 60-55.

The longest trip of the year proved to be a big success as the Redskins upset the mighty Williamsport Millionaires 61-56.

Continuing on the warpath the Sayre five trounced Waverly in another inter-valley gathering by a score of 68-51.

Still in search of its second R.T.L. win, the Red and Blue was defeated at home by Troy 73-69.

The second Towanda game, played on the Black Knights' court, proved to be no contest as the Redskins easily were victorious 75-60.

The Red and Blue received the long awaited revenge by defeating Canton in a very exciting return game 57-53.

Wyalusing proved to be equally as tough on their home floor as they were at Sayre by handing the Redskins a sound 86-62 beating.

In the season's most exciting game, Sayre bowed to Athens for a second time-81-69, in a thriller that could easily have gone either way until late in the contest.

REDSKIN REVUE

"Day-o" by the Banana Boat Boys

"Stars of Tomorrow" was the appropriate title of the 1957 annual variety show held on February 9th. With the masters of ceremonies Glen Snyder and David Reynolds keeping the many skits, pantomimes, and song and dance routines moving at a rapid pace, the capacity audience was completely enthralled. A gaily painted backdrop of "Happiness Street" set the mood for the stage, and the orchestra provided the background music as Mr. Mortimer directed one of the most successful in the traditional line of Redskin Revues.

CLUBS

Hi-Y Club

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Chaffee, the Hi-Y Club is an organization of high school boys, affiliated with The Young Men's Christian Association. Hi-Y is an abbreviation of a longer name, High School YMCA. Hi-Y for boys is a companion club to the Tri-Hi-Y, and together they form the high school youth program of the Young Men's Christian Association. To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character, and develop Christian personality and a Christian society are the main objectives of the club.

Current Events Club

In its first year, the Current Events Club was sponsored by Mr. Baran. He was assisted by the club officers—President, Edward Rockman; Vice-president, David Glaser; Secretary, Earle Maurer; and Treasurer, James Glose—who presented a diversified program each week. This consisted of discussing the pros and cons of various current national and world affairs. The members of the club gained newer understanding of the affairs of state and the effect of economic conditions on everyday living.

Future Teachers of America Club

The fundamental purpose of this club is to interest the students in considering teaching as a career. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Cooley, the members of the club discussed the various aspects of teaching. This was achieved by the annual visit to a different state teachers college where new methods were being introduced. There the students also had an opportunity to speak to various personnel who can broaden their professional field. The club program was successfully carried out.

Directed by the varsity basketball coach, Mr. Hutchison, the Basketball Club was originated to familiarize the boys with the fundamentals of the game. The club was open to all male senior high students. The members assembled once a week to read books and view movies, the purpose of which was to build general interest in the sport. Classroom type discussions on the principles of basketball were carried on. Later in workouts the members had the opportunity to put into use this newly-acquired knowledge.

Typing Club

A popular club this year was the Typing Club under the sponsorship of Miss Bouton. The group was composed of senior high students not enrolled in a regular typing class, but interested in learning to type for their personal use. They were taught the basic skills, and upon the mastery of these, progressed to the practical use of the knowledge in such projects as typing business letters, envelopes, outlines, and other material confronting them in their daily work.

Sophomore Dramatic Club

The Sophomore Dramatic Club has long been a favorite for the youngest students of senior high. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Holst, the members are introduced into the art of dramatics. During the year they presented the Sophomore Play, and in the seclusion of their club meetings practiced putting on make-up and acting out skits. This year Paul Kaplan, David Reynolds, Linda Solomon, and Mary Ann Tyson were chosen for the offices of president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer respectively.

Chess and Checker Club

A comparatively small group of about fourteen boys comprised the Chess and Checker Club. Under the supervision of Mr. Hunt, the group was composed of seventh through tenth grade students having a genuine interest in acquiring the skills of the games. The club was divided into two groups and scheduled tournaments were held each week. Weekly dues were collected into a prize fund to be awarded to the most victorious player at the end of the year. Officers chosen by the members were: President, Lawrence Brown; Secretary, Alex Dunne; and Treasurer, Thomas McCutcheon.

Library Council

Gaining knowledge through experience, the girls of the Library Council constitute a group profoundly interested in Library Science. Under the direction of the librarian, Miss Mantanle, the members learned many different phases of library work, and during the year each girl was given the chance to learn to file cards, shelf books, and prepare new books. Those who qualified were allowed to work at the library desk, a privilege which many of the girls enjoy throughout high school.

Photography Club

To learn and develop techniques in taking and reproducing photographs is the main purpose of the small but important Photography Club. During the club period the members processed prints and negatives, examined and discussed photographs and colored slides, and periodically held contests among themselves. Under the direction of their adviser, Mr. Morris, the group worked during the spring to prepare their best photographs for the Art Exhibit. The members of this club received useful and practical experience in an avocation which may lead them into a rewarding and profitable business.

Junior Tri-Hi-Y

Junior Tri-Hi-Y is a very worth-while club in Sayre High School. Sponsored by Miss Geraldine Stocum, it has stated its purpose as follows: "As members of the Junior Tri-Hi-Y, it is our purpose to strengthen our bodies, develop our minds, worship God, and work together for a finer community and a better world." The Tri-Hi-Y held discussions called "Teen Talk," on matters of everyday living, after which a guest speaker talked to them on that particular aspect of life. The most important part of the club's projects was the work they did for other individuals.

Dance Band

Under the direction of Mr. Hauver, the Dance Band develops the technique of playing together. Their music is mostly popular, but they learn how to play it in different styles of rhythm. Through the club many of its members form their own dance orchestras to play at school dances and other social events.

Cap and Cue

One of the most popular and active clubs in school is the Cap and Cue, sponsored by Mrs. Wildrick. Its main objective is to create interest in dramatics among students. In keeping with the purposes this group presents a play annually and frequently attends plays at Ithaca and other near-by localities. The Cap and Cue sponsors the National Thespian Society for eligible students and at commencement awards prizes to the senior boy and girl outstanding in dramatics.

Trampoline Club

A new idea this year, the Trampoline Club was composed of senior girls who wished to further their skill on the trampoline. Under the direction of the gym teacher Miss Knapp, the members familiarized themselves with the trampoline, then advanced to skilled routines and stunts. The club afforded to those already interested in sports a chance to participate, and to those just starting, an opportunity to develop their interest.

Eighth Grade Art Club

This club was introduced by Mr. Layman for the purpose of affording more and wider opportunities for student experiences in both practice and appreciation within the field of Art. The club was limited to twenty-one members, all from eighth grade. Some of the earlier activities of this club were linoleum block cuts, and personal Christmas greeting cards. Later the club was occupied in sketching and drawing from a model with the opportunity of out-of-door sketching during the spring meetings.

Rifle Club

This club of 11th and 12th grade boys was organized by Mr. Rushin to learn the safety of fire arms, the improvement of marksmanship, and hunting safety. Films on hunting were shown in class. Rifle range was held at the Community Center for students to have experience with rifle practice. The safety stand point deals with how to carry rifles in the car, the fields, and the homes, and also the care and storing of the rifle. The National Rifle Association has a special course on marksmanship in which awards are given. The Rifle Club was in the process of qualifying for this association to receive these awards.

Gridiron Club

Boys who wish to broaden their knowledge of football, or who are interested in football, have the opportunity to study and discuss football with Mr. Downing, who sponsors the Gridiron Club. When the club met, lectures on football technicalities were given by the members, movies were shown of previous Sayre games and also college teams, and the members filled out a quarterback sheet on which various football plays were worked out and discussed. Each member of the Club kept a notebook.

Dance Club

Newly formed this year was the Dance Club sponsored by Mr. Daddona. This club was organized so that the students of junior high would enjoy their dancing more and also become more apt in their dancing abilities. During the year many types of dances were tried, from waltzing to the tango. The following officers were elected by the group: President, Donald Davies; Vice-President, James Newman; and Secretary-Treasurer, Donald Frank.

7th Grade Science Club

Sponsored by Mrs. Flynn, this club studied the latest issue of "Current Science." Often the members presented accounts of the various articles in the paper. With this means, the students were informing themselves about recent scientific discoveries and applications. These projects gradually make the members aware of the scientific influence on the world. Under the direction of Mrs. Flynn and the club officers—President, Robert White; Vice-President, Edward Jones; and Secretary-Treasurer, Marilyn Rathmell—the members gained valuable insight into the workings of the atomic age.

FOREIGN STUDENTS

Host families greet guests on arrival.

Mr. Noone points out an item of interest at Corning Glass.

For the past four years, in cooperation with the Herald Tribune Youth Forum, Sayre has been privileged to be host to several foreign students. This year two boys, Gudjon Gudmundsson of Iceland and Pham Trong Le from Viet Nam were the guests.

Each day the boys attended classes; in addition they made several tours of many valley and nearby factories and business establishments. The most significant phase of their visit, however, was their contact with the American way of life, as for three weeks they became members of typical American families.

The experience of Le's and Gudjon's stay was an invaluable one, offering Sayre High students an opportunity to broaden their knowledge of other countries and to further their understanding and appreciation of cultures and customs not their own.

SAYRENADE

The publication of the yearbook is a major literary project of the year, requiring the combined initiative and cooperation of every member of the student and advisory staffs.

Meeting these challenges successfully with the 1957 "Sayrenade" were the literary staff under the direction of Mrs. Wildrick, the typing staff sponsored by Miss Bouton, the advertising staff sponsored by Mr. Beagle, and the photography staff working alone; the many problems of circulation were managed by Miss Dougherty.

Although composed chiefly of seniors, the staff also includes a limited number of junior members chosen through competition, the purpose of which is to train them to be prepared to accept the responsibilities the following year.

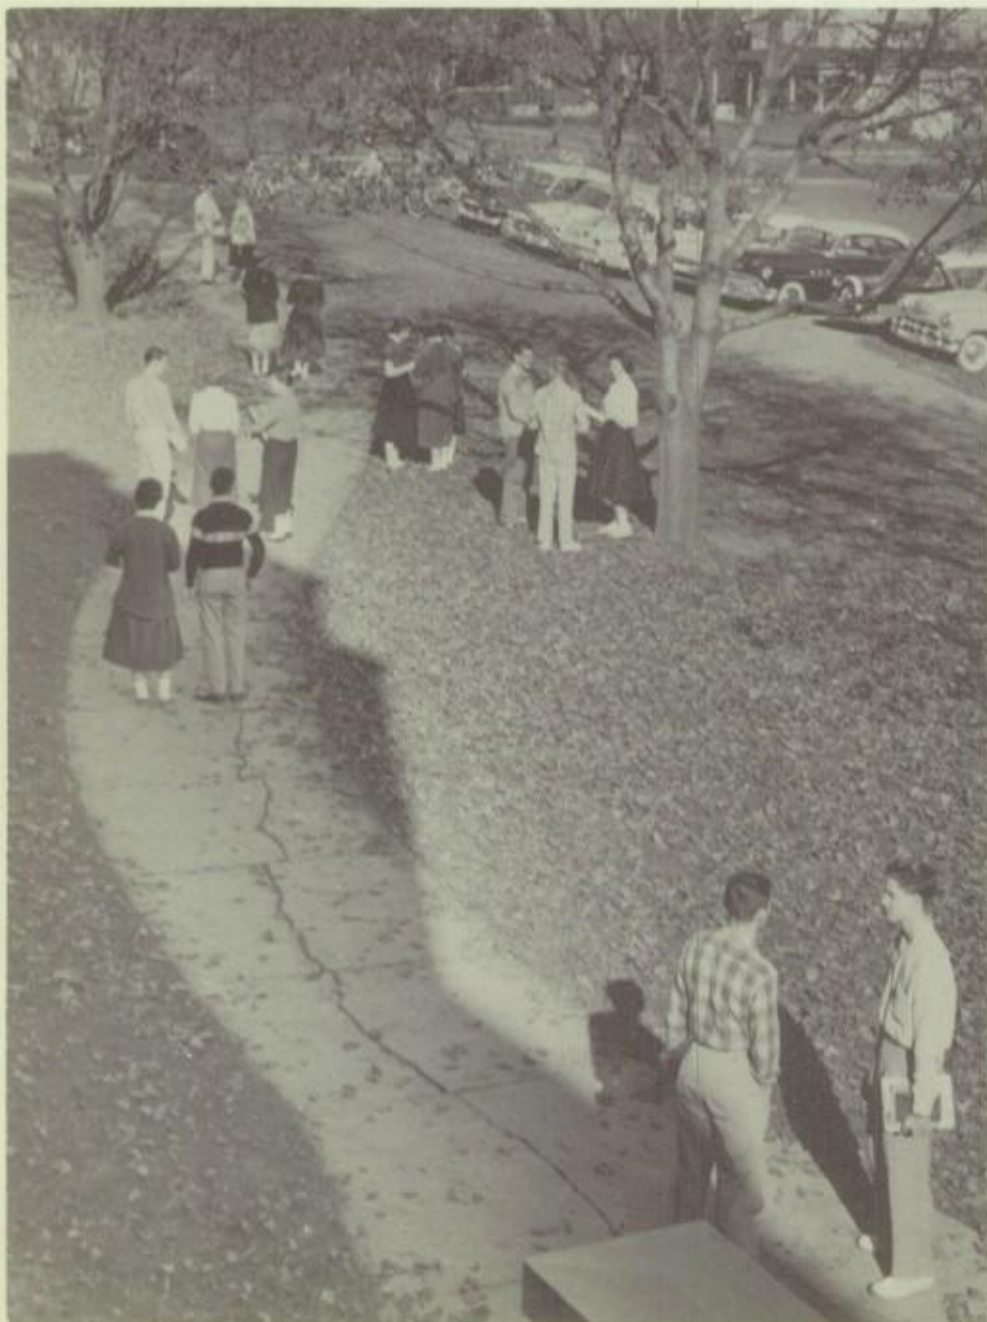

Much careful planning was done in trying to best represent the past year in the annual publication of the Senior Class.

Literary Staff

SEATED: Harper, Casselbury, Beahan, Rogers, Calveric, Franklin. STANDING: Pryslopski, Murphy, Woods, Snyder, Scanlin, Scanlin, Talada, Faltisco, Rumble.

CONCLUSION

As Seniors, we leave Sayre High School with the satisfaction of our accomplishments and the appreciation of our experiences.

Seasons have passed and through the years we have accumulated a wealth of memories of success and failure, of joy and sorrow. These have educated and prepared us for a future of harder work and greater responsibilities.

This yearbook cannot record everything, but it has included the outstanding organizations and activities of which we are so proud to have been a part. In later years these pages will help recall the memories of old friends and former events—memories faded, but not forgotten.
